The Enneagram for Psychotherapists and Counselors

Friday, May 30, 2014 • 9:00 am to 4:30 pm

Best Western University Inn, Fort Collins

Presented by

Carolyn Bartlett and John Reynolds

Skillful use of the Enneagram of Personality can be an invaluable resource. With roots in transpersonal and depth psychology it sheds light on how each style gets trapped and how they get free. Knowing how to make use of it in traditional best therapy practices is exciting, fun and teachable.

Participants will be given fresh ideas to revitalize practice as we explain how the system works in therapy. This content will be enhanced by video clips demonstrating each character style's perspectives about their growth edge, transference/counter-transference and how each experiences the therapeutic relationship as effective or not. Social Workers, Psychologists, Psychiatrists, Spiritual Directors, Coaches, and other helping professionals will enjoy practice insights.

Understanding how to use this personality system empowers your work by providing:

- An accurate and holistic diagnostic tool
- Fresh perspectives on transference and counter-transference
- Insights for more effective treatment outcomes

Taught by Carolyn Bartlett and John Reynolds, both Licensed Clinical Social Workers in private practice, each having over 30 years of experience in providing psychotherapy and consultation. John's specialties include PTSD, Sensorimotor Psychotherapy and men's issues, with offices in Cheyenne and Fort Collins. Carolyn practices in Fort Collins and Cheyenne, integrating psychodynamic, transpersonal and family systems perspectives. She is the author of The Enneagram Field Guide. Carolyn and John have successfully taught Enneagram applications to lay and professional audiences since 1992.

Note: The content of this professional workshop assumes participants have a basic understanding of the Enneagram system and personality styles, including one's own. If you need ways to get this, please call.

What people who have attended our workshops have said...

"Interesting all the way through. The presenters did a sensational job and I highly recommend this workshop to other therapists." – Toni Zimmerman, PhD

"This information has benefited my practice, particularly in helping clients to 'forgive' one another and get on to the work of change." – Anne Wagner, MSW

"This is an exciting workshop. As a psychologist specializing in working with couples I have found the Enneagram to be an extremely useful tool for reframing family interactions and illuminating transference/counter transference issues. Carolyn and John have an amazing talent for this work." – Gladys Wolff, Psy.D.
